Incarnation Policy for Protecting Children and Youth *

A Small Group Leader working with children and youth must:

- Complete a Background Check Form if not current
- Complete a standard Adult Volunteer Form
- Receive basic training that includes introduction to Incarnation's Mission, Vision and Values, Child Protection Policy, sign and agree to uphold the Volunteer Covenant Form.

If someone has been involved at Incarnation for less than six months (measured from the first record of worship participation or giving), then the screening process will also include checking references or previous work with youth or church involvement.

The leader for a group of youth or children must be 21 years of age or older or five years older than the oldest member of the group. In the cases where the age of the leader is less than 21, another adult must be present on the premises and serve as a defined Supervisor.

* Approved September 2017

Authorization for treatment of a minor and photos:

In the event of illness or accident, if the parent or guardian cannot be reached, I authorize Incarnation Lutheran Church, or its agents, to consent to any diagnosis, examination, treatment or hospital care for my child(ren) that is deemed advisable by and is rendered under the supervision of a physician. I release Incarnation Lutheran Church and its agents from responsibility in the case of an accident or illness in connection with any authorized church activities. Incarnation Lutheran Church reserves the right to use the student's picture in any Incarnation Lutheran publication or other media presentation.

I have read and agree with all of the statements above.
