

WOMEN READ Book Selections 2021-22

September 15

American Dirt by Jeanine Cummins; 2020; 459 pg; ILC 1 copy; RCL 31 copies

The incredible struggles of migrants coming to our southern borders.

October 20

The Seed Keeper by Diane Wilson; 2021; 372 pg; ILC 1 copy; RCL 7 copies

Minnesota Native American author; legacies, generational trauma, and the inescapable call of one's roots.

November 17

The Book Woman of Troublesome Creek by Kim Michele Richardson; 2019; 290 pg; ILC 1 copy; RCL 17 copies

A historical novel of the blue-skinned people of Kentucky and the Pack Horse Librarians of Appalachia.

January 19

Main Street by Sinclair Lewis; 1920; 368 pg; RCL 10 copies

A biting and satirical look at small town America;

February 16

Tell Me Your Names and I Will Testify by Carolyn Holbrook; 2020; 200 pg; RCL 5 copies

Compassionate and redemptive stories of a prominent Black woman in the Twin Cities literary community.

March 16

Fix What You Can: Schizophrenia and a Lawmaker's Fight for Her Son by Mindy Greiling; 2020; 232 pg; RCL 9 copies

The author and her husband struggle to navigate and improve Minnesota's inadequate mental health system while advocating for their son.

April 20

The Book of Lost Friends: a Novel by Lisa Wingate; 2020; 400 pg; ILC 1 copy; RCL

Three young women search for family in the post–Civil War South; a modern-day teacher learns of their story and its vital connection to her students’ lives.

May 18

American Gospel: a Novel by Lin Enger; 2020; 248 pg; ILC 1 copy; RCL 8 copies

In the MN north woods of 1974, Pastor Enoch has a vision of the rapture; an examination of how the false security of dogma competes with the risky tumult of freedom.

