

Faith Studies for Small Groups

Fall 2022 – Spring 2023

Version: 7/20/2022

For Everyone

Questions God Asks

We often go to the Bible looking for answers, but in the Biblical stories we find that God asks us questions too! This faith study is based on Trevor Hudson's book, Questions God Asks Us. The chapters are fast and easy to read.

- Simply use the Incarnation faith study outline or add one of the following...
- Options: (1) Short videos of Trevor Hudson and guided meditations from The Upper Room or (2) videos and chapter summaries by Josh Allen of Brentwood Hills Church.
- For a no-homework option, consider reading selections from the chapters OR use the chapter summaries from Brentwood Hills Church.
- See the last page for more information...

Incarnation: The With-God Life

Sixty years as a faith community – Incarnation is celebrating an anniversary this year! It's a time to think about our name, Incarnation, and how God lived among us as Jesus. And, how God is present with us through all ages and life-stages across time. The faith study and sermon series will dive into Bible stories where God is present with God's people in times of struggle, discernment, promise and how we continue to be "with God" every day.

- Note: This is a tentative option, based on interest. If you might be interested, let Denise know (dfloe@incarnationmn.org) ASAP.
- Five sessions - easy to use – no need to match the sermon schedule
- Celebrate with us and be part of something bigger
- Possible stories: Moses at the burning bush, Jacob's dream of the ladder, Joshua and stones of remembering, Jesus in the storm, God's promises to those in exile

The Saint John's Bible

Reflect with others in your group on Bible texts and engage your spiritual imagination with the illuminations from The Saint John's Bible. A series of short sessions have been written to open-up the rich discussion and new insights that can happen only in a group setting. Grant Rykken or others from The Saint John's Bible Action Group can also visit your small group for an introductory session. Incarnation is incredibly blessed to have a Heritage Edition of the Bible to view on-site or use the "coffee table" size books available for use in other settings. Some illuminations can also be viewed on-line (for Zoom gatherings).

- Can be short or longer, depending on time available
- Use for a devotion, single session or a series

Undistracted

How to move back from all the busy, all the crazy to find purpose in a less distracted life. Bob Goff brings his inspirational, engaging and humorous stories to show how to live a more focused and attentive life, present to others and to joy and purpose.

Things to Know...

Previews

- Most resources can be previewed directly on the publisher's website or on YouTube.
- Samples of selected resources are available in Adult B or contact Denise.
- Incarnation resources are available on the website or through a link to view and print (except for Questions God Asks).

Locations

- Groups can be scheduled on-site, by Zoom or as a hybrid, depending on availability. With Amy Martell's summer leave, give us some extra time.
- Think about where your group prefers to meet and how to be flexible and adapt, if needed. This might make a difference in the resource you select.

Orders

- Incarnation will order leader resources and asks that group members order their own copies of books/study guides. Please allow 2-3 weeks before the time that you need a resource to prepare for the group, when ordering through Incarnation.
- If your group is struggling with a resource, consider making a change mid-season.
